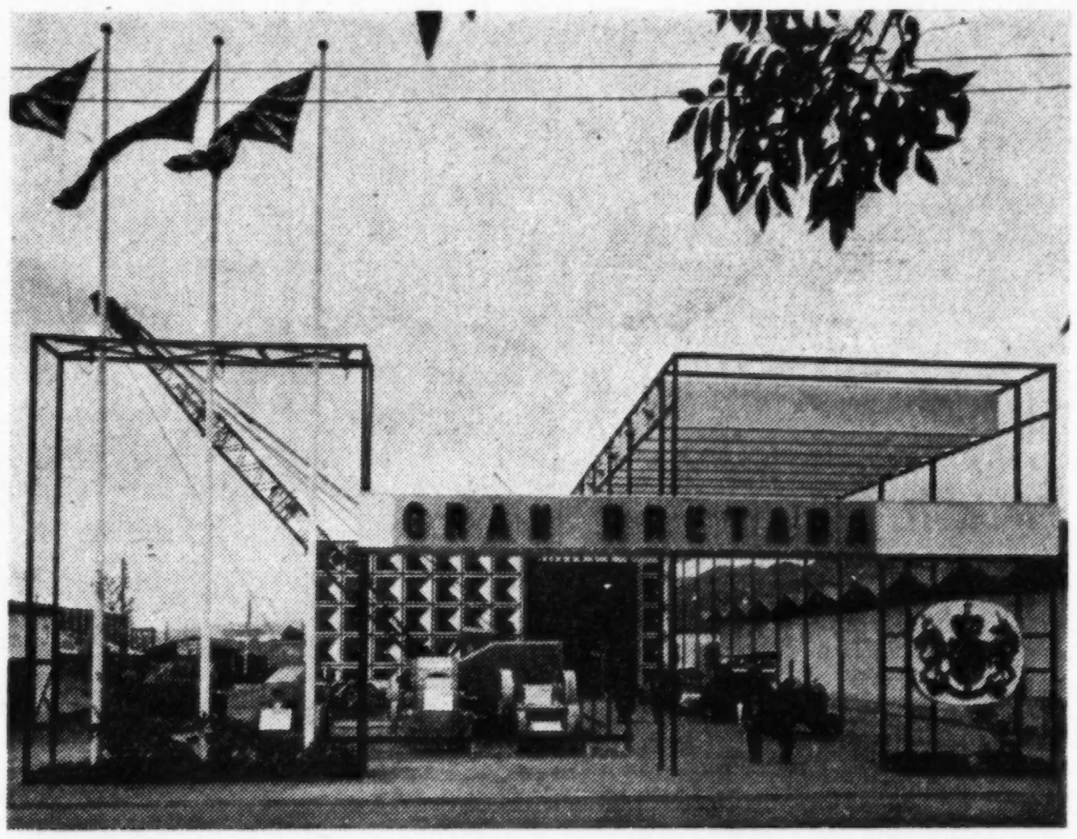
Board of Trade Journal Supplement, 4th November 1966

Programme of OVERSEAS TRADE PROMOTIONS, 1966-68



Scenes from recent trade promotions. TOP ROW, LEFT: Mr. Douglas Jay, President of the Board of Trade, at the Tecalemit stand at the British Industrial Exhibition in Moscow, with Mr. P. G. F. Seldon, the company sales manager; CENTRE: Mr. Arthur Bryant (left), managing director of Josiah Wedgwood and Sons Ltd., discussing Pennine oven-to-table ware with Mr. Roy Mason, Minister of State, Board of Trade, at the recent British Shopping Week in Florence. The meeting took place at the store La Ditta Armando Poggi, which was holding an extensive exhibition of Wedgwood wares during the week, based on the company's best-selling Florentine design. Also in the picture are Signor Poggi (between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Mason), Mr. Martin Wedgwood (on Mr. Mason's left), European manager, and Signor Piero Mezzanotte, Wedgwood's Italian agent. RIGHT: Lord Brown, Minister of State, Board of Trade (left) at the Marks and Spencer stand at the Au Bon Marche store promotion in Paris during October. Standing behind him is Mr. F. C. Everson, Minister (Economic), of the British Embassy, Paris. BOTTOM ROW, LEFT: Display material for the joint Blue Funnel/Glen Line stand at the First Asian International Trade Fair, opening at Bangkok on November 17, is seen being unloaded from the Blue Funnel's 7,709-gross-ton vessel 'Cyclops'. RIGHT: The British pavilion at this year's Bogota International Trade Fair withstood a strong earth tremor, was the only building illuminated when Bogota was blacked-out by a power failure and, rather more importantly, did excellent business as well. It was the first official British participation in this fair, and proved to be a star attraction to public and buyers alike, not the least attractive feature being the pub in which many brands of whisky were on sale.

Overseas fairs, British Weeks and store promotions taking place with Board of Trade assistance — SECTION 1

This is the fourth of a series of supplements to be published every four months (first published on November 19, 1965) designed to help British firms in making their forward plans for exhibiting abroad.

Section I of this supplement lists the events over the next two years for which Board of Trade support is already being planned. Information in Section I is necessarily brief, but further details may be obtained from the officer named against the event. (Tel. Abbey 7877).

The supplement includes as Section II (Europe) Section III (outside Europe) and Section IV (United Kingdom)* the list of trade fairs hitherto published separately every three months. Amendments and additions to this supplement will be shown in the first issue of each intervening month.

Inquiries for details of the Joint Venture Scheme under which the Board of Trade co-operates with trade associations or other non-profit making bodies and any general inquiries in connection with Section I (Miss J. H. Quested, Ext. 3069).

Assistance to exhibitors at overseas fairs: British Pavilions

AS FROM October 1, 1966, Board of Trade assistance given to exhibitors at British pavilions in overseas trade fairs has been extended to provide, as well as space and shell stand at attractive rates and co-operative advertising, help with the costs of translation, fares and return freight.

Provided there are enough firms wishing to participate, the Board of Trade organizes British pavilions or sections at certain international trade fairs overseas. These events, which are mainly outside Western Europe, are organized on the basis of national pavilions (or sections) and if a British pavilion were not provided British firms would not be able to exhibit effectively if at all. The events fall into three categories:

(a) annual events: mainly in East European countries, e.g. Poznan, Budapest;

(b) events held every two or three years: e.g. Tel Aviv, Bogota, Lima;

(c) events which are non-recurrent: mainly in less developed countries e.g. Lagos 1962, Accra 1967.

To firms exhibiting in British pavilions the Board of Trade makes a charge per square foot of net space occupied inclusive of shell stand and essential services. The rate is well below the cost to the Board of providing these facilities. Appropriate reductions are made for outside space or where a shell stand does not have to be provided. The Board of Trade now looks to the British National Export Council to recommend on behalf of industry that a British pavilion should be provided at these events. The decision to provide a pavilion is announced as early as possible, and events at which pavilions are already being organized are shown in this supplement.

New measures of assistance

To exhibitors in British pavilions at events taking place after October 1, 1966, the Board of Trade will be willing to contribute towards costs of translation of sales literature, travel and return freight on the following basis:

(i) Translation

For each firm participating in a British Pavilion the Board of Trade will be prepared to pay, on sight of invoices and satisfactory evidence that they have been paid, up to 50 per cent of the actual costs of translation of sales literature for distribution at the event. Copies of the actual literature should accompany claims for assistance.

(ii) Travel

For firms participating in a British pavilion at an event *outside Western Europe the Board of Trade will be prepared to pay (on production of satisfactory evidence and within the maximum of half the appropriate return tourist air fares), up to 50 per cent of the expenditure actually incurred on travel, for two representatives each of whom man the firm's stand for the duration of the event. Where possible British carriers should be used.

(iii) Return freight

For firms participating in a British pavilion at an event *outside Western Europe the Board of Trade will be prepared to pay, on sight of invoices and satisfactory evidence that they have been paid, up to 50 per cent of the cost of the return freight on unsold goods, consigned from this country specifically for exhibition and sale, provided the goods remain unsold and are shipped direct to the United Kingdom within 12 months of the close of the event.

Further details about this assistance and the submission of claims will be sent to those firms who decide to exhibit in any British pavilion.

Co-operative advertising

Assistance with co-operative advertising is already available to firms exhibiting in British pavilions.

General inquiries about this notice and the forms of assistance given under the Joint Venture and Co-operative Advertising Schemes should be addressed to Board of Trade, Overseas Fairs Directorate, 1 Victoria Street, London, S.W.1. (Tel. Abbey 7877, Ext. 3070 or 3372). (Callers to Broadway Buildings, 54 Broadway, London, S.W.1.).

*For the purposes of this notice Western Europe covers the countries at present in the European Free Trade Association, the European Economic Community, Spain, Turkey and Greece.

Brussels: BRITISH WEEK – September 29-October 7, 1967.
This will be the sixth major British Week to be held in Europe and will follow the pattern of previous British Weeks organized by the Board of Trade in association with the BNEC – Export Council for Europe.
The canvassing of shopkeepers in Brussels is now well advanced and has shown a marked interest in participating fully in the Week. Although this event is not due to take place until nearly a year hence, the press coverage in Belgium has continued since the official announcement in June at an Inaugural Conference. Great enthusiasm for the Week has been shown by the Belgians, and it is hoped that British manufacturers will take advantage of the goodwill that has been stimulated by ensuring that their products are featured in the Brussels shops during the Week and that there are adequate stocks to meet the increased demand which normally arises during a British Week.
The address of the British Week Office is 131 rue du Commerce, Brussels 4, Belgium. The Director of this office is Mr. S. John Peskett, OBE. Telephone Brussels 12.18.58 or 12.19.46. Telex 2026-22703.

Toronto: BRITISH WEEK – October 12-21, 1967.
The Prime Ministers of the United Kingdom and Canada have agreed to be Patrons of the first British Week to be held in North America. This is a massive promotion of British consumer goods which is being organized jointly by the Board of Trade and the Committee for Exports to Canada.
In Toronto the British Week Office since March has been canvassing many hundreds of retailers, agents, distributors, and other trade outlets. Many retailers as a result have expressed a keenness to extend their ranges and this information is being passed on to British industry.
In Britain the 14 Product Committees set up by CECAN are encouraging action by British firms to meet the heavy demand which is expected in Toronto. Manufacturers can either promote their goods individually or collectively, by taking part in the Government supported missions and samples displays which are being organized.
The British Week Office, under its director, Raymond Jones, is located at 200 University Avenue, Toronto 1, but firms seeking information about the Week should apply in the first instance to Miss Ann Roush of the Committee for Exports to Canada or to the Board of Trade.

British goods on show in Austria, USSR, Italy, and United States

Mr. and Mrs. I Davies, of Lyndalware Ltd., exhibitors at the Vienna International Autumn Trade Fair (September 11-18), look on while HE Sir John Pilcher, British Ambassador to Austria, shows one of their products to Mr. Maurice McManus, Lord Provost of Dundee, who visited the fair. On the right is Mr. E. Sniders, Counsellor (Commercial) at the British Embassy. This year's official British participation was generally held to have been one of the most successful yet.

Mr. L. I. Brezhnev, First Secretary of the Russian Communist Party, and a member of the Praesidium, recording a message while visiting the British Section at Interorgtechnika '66 held in Moscow from September 1-15. Others in the photograph include Mr. de Meyere, of Dictaphone Ltd.; Mr. M. Rakovsky, chairman of the exhibition's organizing committee (behind Mr. Brezhnev's right shoulder); and Mr. M. A. Suslov (in dark hat), secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist Party, and a member of the Praesidium.

Parker (Frederick) & Sons Ltd. were among the 14 British firms who exhibited successfully at the International Furniture and Furnishing Accessories Exhibition held in Lyon (October 8-11). Their new reclining chair, seen here being put to the test, sold even better than they had hoped, and 60 chairs were sold before the exhibition closed.

A general view of the combined stand of the nine British exhibitors who participated successfully in the first joint venture at the important National Hardware Show (October 10-13) at the Coliseum, New York. The firms are members of the Federation of British Horticultural Exporters.

A LIBRARY FOR EXPORTERS

Foreign trade statistics and other economic statistics from almost every country in the world are freely available for reference in the Board of Trade Statistics and Market Intelligence Library at Hillgate House, 35 Old Bailey, London, E.C.4. This is a modern well-equipped library of over 85,000 volumes. It has a reading-room for visitors, and provides a document-copying service. There are trade directories covering 150 countries, and an expanding collection of trade catalogues of foreign manufacturers. A brochure describing the library's services more fully is available on request.

The library opens from 9 to 5.30, Mondays to Fridays, (Tel. City 5757, Ext. 368 or Telex No. 25977).

Dr. H. C. Lübke, President of the Federal German Republic, was a visitor to the stands of the British Photographic Export Group at Photokina, the major photographic exhibition held in Cologne (October 1-9). Dr. Lübke is seen here talking to Mr. S. L. Edwards, Minister (Economic) at the British Embassy in Bonn.

Although this year's Brno International Trade Fair ran for five days less than last year, attendance figures were well above expectations and the British Information stand was kept constantly busy.

PUBLICITY OVERSEAS FOR UK TRADE FAIRS

Organizers of Trade Fairs and Exhibitions in the United Kingdom are reminded that they are welcome to send posters and brochures about their Trade Fairs to Official British Commercial Representatives Overseas, who are always anxious to publicize such events.

But Commercial Representatives must receive material on events well in advance—two clear months is a minimum notice—and they should be sent a reasonable number of brochures and posters for distribution. Two or three dozen copies for the Commercial Representatives in each area it is desired to cover should be considered an absolute minimum. A full list of British Commercial Representatives Overseas, together with their addresses, is published every three months in the Board of Trade Journal.

Publicity material for Commercial Representatives in more distant countries should be despatched by air-mail, since delivery to some countries by surface mail can take up to two months.

The Commercial Representatives should be told whether the publicity material sent to them is receiving any separate distribution in the country concerned.
